1991 • 2013 Lone Star Conference Champions • Two LSC South Titles • 27 Winning Seasons

After Wins over Javelinas and War Hawks, Greyhounds and Buffaloes Meet Again

Home Sweet Home

The Greyhounds have won six of the last ten home games and are 7-6 at Greyhound Stadium under Head Coach Josh Lynn. At home in 2014, Eastern is outscoring the opposition by a 41.6-29.8 points per game average.

Jeremy Buurma has thrown for 693 yards and eight touchdowns at Greyhound Stadium this season, while E'lon Spight has rushed for 760 yards and ten scores.

In the Series

The Buffaloes hold a 15-13 edge in the overall series, and a 14-13 edge in the Wagon Wheel series, which began in the 1986 season. Eastern has won the last two meetings, including a 31-21 victory two weeks ago. Earlier this season, WT recovered their own kickoff to start the game, but a bad snap on the first play from scrimmage stalled the drive. Eastern went on to seize a 21-0 lead and never looked back.

Last year, the Hounds rallied from a 21-point deficit to defeat the Buffaloes for the first time since the 2004 season. Today marks the first non-Wagon Wheel meeting since 1945.

In the Record Books

Last week, Spight posted the Greyhounds' first 200-yard rushing game since the 2007 season. With 1,479 rushing yards and 19 rushing touchdowns, he has set the ENMU single-season records in both categories. With 3,287 rushing yards, the Hounds are closing in on the team record of 3,444, also set in the 2007 season.

Eastern has scored 382 points this season, eclipsing the record of 380, set in 2010.

On the Run

Against Texas A&M-Kingsville, E'lon Spight posted the Greyhounds first 200-yard rushing game since 2007. He had 114 yards on just three carries in the second half and set new single-season rushing records for yards and touchdowns. The Hounds also shattered the team mark for points in a season.

E'lon Spight rushed for 161 yards and a touchdown against West Texas A&M and is just 196 yards and three touchdowns from matching Michael Benton's single-season records from the 2007 season. Jeremy Buurma hit six of his eight pass attempts against WT and rushed for a career-high 81 yards with two touchdowns on the ground and one through the air.

Spight rushed for a career-best 196 yards on 40 carries at Angelo State. The 40 carries was the most by any Greyhound player since at least the 1998 season.

Spight also had 193 rushing yards and three scores against Tarleton State, while Aaron Johnson had a career-high 117 receiving yards and matched a career-best with two touchdown receptions. Spight has run for a Lone Star Conference best 905 yards, this season

Spight was the LSC Offensive Player of the Week after rushing for 189 yards and four touchdowns on just 27 carries against McMurry. He is just the sixth player since 1998 to have four rushing touchdowns in a game.

The Hounds rushed for 290 yards against Texas A&M-Kingsville. Jacob Johnson had another huge game with 110 yards and a touchdown on just three catches. His 75-yard scoring grab was the longest of his career.

Jacob Johnson caught eight of the nine passes completed by Eastern against Texas A&M-Commerce for 159 yards and two touchdowns. Three Greyhounds rushed for at least 50 yards: Jordan Wells (94), Andrew Lopez (73) and Spight (51).

Jeremy Buurma had a five-game streak with at least one touchdown pass, snapped against Midwestern State. The Mustangs also snapped his streak of 82 consecutive pass attempts without an interception.

Spight has posted three consecutive 100-yard rushing games.

Two weeks ago against Adams State, the Hounds rolled up 608 yards of total offense, the highest total since September 19, 2009 (736) in a 76-56 win over Texas A&M-Commerce. Eastern's 442 rushing yards marked the first 400-yard game on the ground since September 15, 2007 against Easter Central (488 yards). Spight continued to spark the offense with 142 rushing yards, with included 125 yards on 24 carries in the first half. Aaron Johnson hauled in a pair of touchdown passes.

Jacob Johnson turned in a career game at New Mexico Highlands, with three touchdowns and 178 yards on just four catches. He posted the first two scores of the game on receptions of 22 and 69 yards and added a third, late in the half on a 49-yard grab. Over the last two games, he has five touchdown catches.

Spight crossed the century mark, with 144 yards rushing on 28 carries with a touchdown.

The Defense Doesn't Rest

Jerell Bradford made a career-best 10 tackles against Texas A&M-Kingsville, last week, while Elliot Peters had five quarterback pressures. Earlier in the season, Eastern posted the first shutout against the Javelinas since the 1984 season.

Eastern turned in a strong performance in the Wagon Wheel Game and limited the Buffaloes to a season-low 266 yards of total offense, which included just 35 yards and two first downs in the first half.

The Greyhounds limited Angelo State to 252 yards of total offense, 78 rushing yards and just two-for-eleven on third downs.

After giving up 457 yards of total offense including rushing yards 236 yards in the first half against Tarleton State, the Hounds limited Tarleton State to 206 yards with 41 rushing yards in the second half.

Seth Bailey registered the first pick six of the season, at McMurry. He also had seven tackles with 2.5 for a loss, a sack, batted down two passes and had a QB pressure.

The 186 yards of total offense given up by to Adams State was the lowest total since Southwestern Oklahoma State managed 180 yards on September 5, 2009.

Teams that are Special

Logan O'Brien leads the special teams with nine tackles, with a team-high four in punt coverage. Mitchell Cox, Bradley Beeston and O'Brien are tied for the lead in kick coverage, with five each.

Mitchell Cox had a big game against West Texas A&M with four touchbacks on kickoffs, two punts downed inside the 20 and a 40-yard field goal.

Kevin Reaves had a 53-yard kick return against Angelo State, continuing his strong special teams play.

D'Maujeric Tucker's 100-yard kick return against Tarleton State was his second for a touchdown in his last two seasons. It also was the fifth 100-yard return in team history and earned him LSC Special Teams Player of the Week Honors.

Reaves was selected as the Lone Star Conference Special Teams Player of the Week after he blocked two field goals at Texas A&M-Kingsville. It marked the first time a player blocked two kicks in a game, since Nathan Uland at CSU-Pueblo in the 2009 opener.

Buffalo Notes

After dropping a 31-21 decision to the Greyhounds, WT routed McMurry in the opening round of the LSC playoffs.

LSC Notes

Entering the final week of play, LSC teams are 22-14 at home and 15-19 on the road. Last week, all four home teams were victorious.

Wagon Wheel/Blackwater Draw

The Blackwater Draw Museum is very close to Greyhound Stadium.

Few college football teams have a home field advantage like Eastern New Mexico.

The Greyhounds play within visual distance of ENMU's Blackwater Draw Museum and just a few miles from the Blackwater Draw archaeological site.

The "Curse of Blackwater Draw" has been blamed by opponents for many home wins by the Hounds. Newspapers in New Mexico and Texas often list Blackwater Draw as the dateline for ENMU's home games.

Blackwater Draw is a significant site for the study of Clovis Culture, and is also a key site for Folsom Culture research. Both groups hunted game and gathered plants and roots. Humans arrived at the site at least 11,000 years ago.

At one time there was a large pond near the Blackwater Draw site that was probably a major watering hole for animals. Several mammoth skeletons have been found, along with those of Bison Antiquus.

The winner of the Eastern New Mexico University-West Texas A&M University football game receives the traveling Wagon Wheel Trophy. The annual battle for the Wagon Wheel began in 1986, when the teams resumed play 41 years after the first game in 1945. Since 1986, ownership of the wheel has been contested every year except 1991, when West Texas A&M did not compete in football. The teams have not met since the 2009 season, when the Buffaloes claimed a 34-24 game in the freezing rain, in Canyon, Texas. ENMU trails in the Wagon Wheel series, 14-13 (15-13 all-time).

Eastern New Mexico University's Blackwater Draw archaeological site has resulted in the discovery of skeletal remains from such animals as Bison Antiquus (left) and the mammoth (right). The Blackwater Draw site is one of the most significant locations in the United States for the study of life roughly 11,000 years ago.

LITTLE CHANGE IN AFCA DIVISION II COACHES' POLL

WACO, TEX.— There was little change this week in the AFCA Division II Coaches' Top 25 Poll as the Top 21 teams from last week's rankings all won. Minnesota State-Mankato kept their No. 1 spot for the fourth straight week, beating Wayne State (Neb.) 49-0. Minnesota-Duluth still sits at No. 2, followed by Lenoir-Rhyne (N.C.), Ferris State (Mich.) and Bloomsburg (Pa.).

Carson-Newman (Tenn.) and Ashland (Ohio) fell out of the poll allowing Texas A&M-Commerce and Valdosta State (Ga.) to re-enter this week. Texas A&M-Commerce comes in at No. 24 after beating Tarleton State (Texas) 56-49 in the first round of the Lone Star Conference (LSC) playoff. The Lions will play Angelo State (Texas) next week for the LSC playoff championship. Valdosta State re-enters at No. 25 after a six-week layoff. The Blazers are 7-2 after handing North Carolina-Pembroke a 36-7 loss.

There are only two Top 25 matchups in the final week of the regular season, but both have conference title implications. No. 9 Ouachita Baptist (Ark.) puts its unbeaten record on the line as they travel across 10th street in Arkadelphia, Arkansas, to face No. 14 Henderson State (Ark.) in the Battle of the Ravine for the Great American Conference title. The second matchup has unbeaten and No. 12 Concord (W.Va.) traveling to No. 21 Shepherd (W.Va.) with the Mountain East Conference championship at stake.

Head Coach Josh Lynn

Josh Lynn (Second Year 16-14) Head Football Coach

Joined the ENMU Coaching Staff in 2012
Head Coach at New Mexico Military Institute (2011)
Reached CHAMPS Heart of Texas Bowl
Safeties Coach at Delta State (2003-04)
Assistant Coach at ENMU

In his just two seasons, Head Coach Josh Lynn has established the Greyhound football team as a contender. In 2013, the Hounds opened the season at 1-3 and trailed by 28 points at Angelo State. Lynn's charges responded with a stirring comeback against ASU and won the rest of their games, to claim their first Lone Star Conference title since the 1991 season.

In 2012, Lynn made his return to the Greyhound sidelines a successful one. He guided Eastern to two wins in its first three games, including a hard-fought 34-24 win over now-NCAA Division I University of the Incarnate Word, as part of the Lone Star Conference Football Festival at Cowboys Stadium. The Hounds also won a 7-3 defensive struggle, in the home finale against Texas A&M-Commerce.

In December, 2011, Eastern New Mexico University athletic director Jeff Geiser announced that Josh Lynn had been named as the 15th coach of the Greyhound football program. Lynn comes to Eastern after posting a 9-2 record at New Mexico Military Institute during the 2011 season. Although he is the new head coach, he isn't new to the program or community, having played as an all-conference performer at ENMU, prior to serving on the coaching staff.

"I welcome the opportunity to come to Eastern New Mexico University," said Lynn. "My family and I look forward to working with the Greyhound football family in the future."

"We are very pleased that Josh Lynn has accepted our invitation to be the new football coach at Eastern New Mexico University," said Steven Gamble, ENMU president. "It is especially gratifying when an ENMU graduate wants to return to their alma mater. Coach Lynn has a tradition of success at every level he has been at—from being a player to assistant coach to head coach. He epitomizes the kind of person we want representing our university: a competitive coach who wants to win, but will not take academic shortcuts. His priorities are academics and character in recruiting players who can help the Greyhounds be competitive in the Lone Star Conference. Under his direction, we are looking forward to the future of Greyhound football."

Lynn wasted little time establishing himself at nearby NMMI, coaching the secondary and special teams, when he arrived for the 2005 season, before becoming the defensive coordinator in 2006. After taking

Josh Lynn's Resume

Year(s)	Team	Job Title
2000	ENMU	Wide Receivers
2001-02	ENMU	Recruiting Coord.
2003-04	Delta State	Safeties Coach
2005-06	NMMI	Special teams Coord.
2006-2010	NMMI	Defensive Coord.
2011	NMMI	Head Coach
2012-	ENMU	Head Coach

the reigns as head coach, he quickly turned around a program, which posted a 3-8 mark in 2010, by winning nine games. The team finished ranked sixth in the nation and made a trip to the CHAMPS Heart of Texas Bowl. Lynn started his coaching career with the Greyhounds as a student assistant coach for wide receivers in 2000, before becoming a recruiting coordinator for the following two seasons.

"I am obviously excited," said Geiser. "The news that Lynn has been named as our football coach will reverberate around the entire state and will excite in-state student athletes about our program. This gives us instant credibility. Josh is an Eastern guy, his father is in a New Mexico Hall of Fame, and nobody is going to work harder to restore pride in our program."

Prior to moving to NMMI, Lynn served as a safeties coach at Gulf South Conference powerhouse Delta State University during the 2003-04 seasons. He coached all-conference players at all three schools, including wide receivers Cale Sanders and Derek Hunter at ENMU. Gary Bell (Delta State) and Nick Jackson (NMMI) went on to become All-Americans under Lynn's watch.
